

Vietnam Visa Fees

Applicants can pay by credit cards (MasterCard, Visa) via PayPal and Onepay or wire transfer through bank accounts or Western Union.

A. Processing time: We process your application based on Vietnam local time: GMT+7

- Standard processing: guaranteed 2 working-days
- Urgent processing: 8 working hours (plus 15 USD)
- Urgent processing: 4 working hours (plus 25 USD)

B. Service fee: Pay to Get Vietnam Visa on Arrival process the approval letter, with this letter you can get onboard and use it to get your Vietnam visa.

C. Stamping fee: Pay directly in cash to Immigration Department at Vietnam international airport to get your visa stamped.

D. Assistant fee: To prevent you from wasting time and a long queue at immigration check-point at Vietnam Airports, we offer you the Assistant Service. With this service, our staff will greet you right after you land and will assist all procedures until your Vietnam visa gets stamped.

How assistant service run?

Step 1: In the application form, inform us of your exact flight number, arrival time (Vietnam Time: GMT+7). If your flight is changed, please notify us at least 48 hours before your landing (except Saturday, Sunday and national holidays) via email or call us.

Step 2: Right after landing, our staff will greet you with the welcome-board. In case of early landing, you cannot find our staff, please contact us via our hot-line number!

Step 3: Our staff will collect your visa approval letter, passport, 2 photos (4x6cm with white background) and entry & exit form and do all the procedures until your visa gets stamped.

Step 4: Get your passport back with the Vietnam Visa stamped from our staff.

E. Airport transfer fee: You can also use our Airport transfer service from only one person or one hundred people, remember to count your luggage before choosing the suitable car.

Take adequate insurance coverage while traveling to Vietnam

It is now very important to keep various types of insurance policies. Travel insurance, online auto insurance and of course life insurance are playing important roles in your lives. Anyways, here we discuss about different tourism related aspects of Vietnam, along with the necessary travel insurance policy.

Vietnam, the Southeast Asian country, bordered by the Mainland China is an excellent tourist spot. With its unique culture, dramatic coastlines and stunning landscapes, the small country attracts numerous visitors every year. Nature God has indeed been generous on this country. Stunning rice fields, wonderful mountains and peasant women in colorful dresses are major attractions of this country. Anyways, the country is attracting tourists since 1990s. The rising number of tourist flows is being assisted by rising state and private investment. In 2009, nearly 8.77 million international tourists visited this place.

Popular tourist destinations in the country include Hanoi, the capital city of the country and Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon), the former imperial capital of Hue. However, if you visit to this part of the world, you should have proper travel insurance in place. Before traveling to Vietnam, you should know certain things. Threats from terrorism are very low. However, there can be sporadic attacks to the foreign tourists and expatriates. The eastern part of this country is prone to natural disasters. Tropical cyclones erupt generally from May to November.

Though visit to this country is risk free, but you should not take any chances. Incidence of petty crimes may take place in the main shopping areas for the tourists. Some form of violent attacks on the tourists have also been reported in recent times. It is recommended that you must hire metered taxis so as to minimize the risks of robbery or overcharging. While moving here and there, you should be very much alert on pickpockets. It is also advised that you must avoid wearing expensive jewelry while traveling to this country. You must use the hotel safety deposit box to keep your valuables. So, while traveling to Vietnam, it makes great sense to keep comprehensive travel insurance, so as to ensure trouble free travel.